

Guelph Community Foundation announces fall grant recipients

October 2, 2014 – At a community celebration held today at the River Run Centre, The Guelph Community Foundation announced $115,050 in grants to 28 organizations throughout Guelph and Wellington County.

The grants (see attached), which were awarded as part of The Foundation’s 2014 Fall Granting Program and the 2014 Musagetes Grant Program, will benefit a wide spectrum of community organizations in the fields of arts and culture, youth, education and social services.

“We received a large response to our call for applications and had to make some very challenging decisions about how to allocate the available funds,” said The Foundation’s Chair and Grants Committee Chair, Susan Brown.

These grant programs are in addition to spring scholarship and summer camp grants, and various donor advised and flow through grants. “Today’s Fall Community Grants and Musagetes Grants will bring the Foundation’s total number of dollars disbursed for this year to more than $280,000,” commented Brown.

In addition to the grants announcement, attendees were entertained by a duo from the Suzuki String School, and heard stories from Laura Muirhead of the Child Witness Centre, and Brendan Johnson of the Guelph Neighbourhood Support Coalition, who described the impact of GCF grants in their organizations.

Of course, philanthropy and community building are not all about donations, Hilary Coates, Chair of the Random Act of Kindness Day advisory committee, reminded attendees as she invited everyone – seniors, school kids and CEOs alike, to participate in its upcoming Random Act of Kindness Day on Friday, November 7.
